THE INVERNESS COURIER—DECEMBER 11, 1862.

[Text content裁剪，包含多段历史、政治和新闻内容，涉及当时的英国政治、社会和国内外事件。]

ALLIED INSTITUTIONS OF SLEEP. We have the week past a number of articles in the newspapers of this country, and also in those of the States, on the subject of criminal law in America. They have been of great interest, and have been written in a manner which is very satisfactory to the public. They have been written by gentlemen who are well acquainted with the subject, and who are capable of expressing their sentiments with great precision and accuracy.

These articles have been written by gentlemen who are well acquainted with the subject, and who are capable of expressing their sentiments with great precision and accuracy.

OTHER NEWS. The weather has been very pleasant, and the country has been so delightful that there is a great deal of talk about it, and a great deal of fun is to be had in reading about it.
